

International Summit for Learning Disability Artists and their Support Studios.

4-6 March 2015
Trongate 103, Glasgow G1 5HD

Over three days, artists with learning disabilities and their support studios will come together to share their practice, learn from each other and celebrate their creativity.

Attending studios: Arts Project Australia (Australia), Venture Arts (UK), Action Space (UK), Inuti (Sweden), KCAT (Ireland), Atelier 5 (Germany), Celf O Gwmpas (Wales), In-Definite Arts (Canada), Kaarisilta (Finland), Nina Haggerty Centre (Canada).

Programme

Wednesday 4th March

2pm: Opening of the International Summit for Learning Disability Artists and their Support Studios

Presentations and Open Studios will run simultaneously during the afternoon.

Open Studios

2pm - 4pm. Artists can drop in and take part in a series of visual arts workshops hosted by Project Ability tutors.

Presentations

2pm - 2.30pm: Project Ability

2.30pm - 3pm: Arts Project Australia

3pm - 3.30pm: Break

3.30pm - 4pm: Nina Haggerty Center

6pm - 9pm: Pizza and movie night in GMAC, 5th floor of Trongate 103.

Note: during the three days of the Summit, our documentation team will photograph, film and upload information on our social networking platforms.

Thursday 5th March

Workshops, presentations and tours will run simultaneously during the day.

Open Studios

10am - 12pm: Artists can drop in and take part in a series of visual arts workshops hosted by Project Ability tutors.

12pm - 1pm: Lunch

1pm - 4pm: Artists can drop in and take part in a series of visual arts workshops hosted by Project Ability tutors.

Presentations & Talks

10am - 10.30am: Atelier 5

10.30am - 11am: Inuti

11am - 11.30am: Break

11.30am - 12pm: KCAT

12pm - 1pm: Lunch

1pm - 1.30pm: Talk by residency artist Tanya Raabe-Webber

1.30pm - 2pm: Kaarisilta

2pm - 2.30pm: Celf O Gwmpas

2.30pm - 3pm: Break

3pm - 3.30pm: Action Space

3.30pm - 4pm: In-Definite Arts

Residency & Tours

10am - 4pm: Throughout the day, residency artist Tanya Raabe-Webber will be creating a live responsive and collective portrait gallery that captures and explores the physicality and interactions of the artists and visitors participating in the event.

11am - 11.30am: Tour of Street Level Photoworks (10 spaces, free but booking required)

1pm - 1.30pm & 1.30pm - 2pm: Tour of Sharmanka (10 spaces, free but booking required)

2.30pm - 3pm: Tour of Glasgow Print Studios (10 spaces, free but booking required)

5pm - 5.30pm: Talk by award winning photographer Alicia Bruce, who was commissioned to capture the essence of our Aspire workshops.

6pm - 8pm: Book launch and exhibition opening in the Project Ability Gallery

Friday 6th March

10am - 10.30am: Presentation by Venture Arts

11am - 12.30pm: Workshop with artist Janetka Platun, who was commissioned to evaluate our volunteer programme and to creatively respond to it.

12.30pm - 1.30pm: lunch

1.30pm - 3.30pm: Feedback, discussion, planning the future.

